

OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this report was threefold:

- ° to summarize and clarify the health effects of formaldehyde, with particular attention to the studies of the association between lung cancer and formaldehyde exposure.
- ° to determine formaldehyde levels in mill areas of concern to workers, and to compare these levels to exposure limits.
- ° to assess the capabilities and limitations of three formaldehyde diffusion monitors.